
2024 Create NSW Cultural Grants

The Cultural Grants Program is a Create NSW devolved funding program administered by the RAHS on behalf of the NSW Government. Twenty-one local and community history projects will receive funding from the 2024 Cultural Grants Program.

Nambucca District Historical Society: To publish approximately 60 articles written by museum members for local newspapers and community radio about settlement in Nambucca Valley. Awarded: $3,710.

Manly Warringah and Pittwater Historical Society: To publish the history of the Forest Youth Theatre Company. Awarded: $3,601.

Kiama and District Historical Association: To publish Rascals and Respectables, a social history of Kiama area hotels. Awarded: $3,789.

Canowindra Historical Society and Museum: To print a book about public education in Canowindra from 1975. The book will highlight education at Canowindra Public and High Schools. Awarded: $4,580.

Shoalhaven Historical Society: To conserve a tinted photograph of Alexander Berry and 'Prout's Landscapes'. Awarded: $4,880.

Pyree Library Institute: To publish Pyree: Setting the standard in Shoalhaven Cricket and Pyree Rovers: The Story of a Football Club. Awarded: $3,850.

Grafton Rowing Club: To collect, collate and preserve the history of the two Volunteer Water Brigades that served Grafton in times of flood from 1885 to 2000. Awarded: $1,001.

Port Macquarie Historical Society: For the Historic Port Macquarie Driving Tour Brochure, which will enable tourists to self-explore Port Macquarie's historic sites. Awarded: $2,150.

Goulburn Mulwaree Council: For the pre-publication research and writing of Rocky Hill War Memorial Tower. Awarded: $2,500.

Paterson Historical Society: To publish Gresford to Carrabolla – People and Places. Awarded: $2,500.

Albury and District Historical Society: To digitise Border Morning Mail 1954 and to conduct a free public workshop. Awarded: $1,958.

Picton and District Historical and Family History Society: For the publication The History of Thirlmere NSW. Awarded: $2,635.

Bathurst District Historical Society: To produce a book that tells the story of the women born in the Bathurst District who made significant contributions to the Great War. Awarded: $5,000.

Shoalhaven Libraries: To preserve and provide access to several historical newspapers produced in the Shoalhaven. Awarded: $5,000.

Campbelltown and Airds Historical Society: To publish the history of St Patrick's College, Campbelltown. Awarded: $5,000.

Clarence River Historical Society: To translate the 1869 diaries of Anna Mues and to produce a book of the diaries. Awarded: $1,690.

Latin American Research Platform: To research the solidarity movement and activism in support of Latin American people and causes. The investigation will cover the period when refugee waves from Latin America peaked between the 1970s and 1990s. Awarded: $575.

Callara Culture and Heritage Aboriginal Corporation: To record the history of the Wiradjuri family of Jacky Sloan. The project will use family and local records and record oral histories of the 15 women who descend from Jacky Sloan. Awarded: $2,590.

Berry and District Historical Society: For Our Ancestors: The Pioneers of Berry, which will document the 269 pioneers of the Berry region who are buried in the Berry Cemetery. Awarded: $1,155.

Sydney Heritage Fleet Maritime Research and Records Centre: To scan a collection of historical photos and documents. Awarded: $1,000.

Coonamble Family History Society: For the digitisation of Coonamble Times/Coonamble Independent. Awarded: $1,320.

